Taking It to the Street

Years ago, I was part of a program intended to increase Evangelism in the Episcopal Church. I can no longer remember the name of the curriculum, but what I do remember was it was designed for small groups to tell stories to each other of why they loved church. The problem was – the effort never moved past the small group. We told a lot of feel-good stories to each other – to other Episcopalians. We never took it to the street.

Years later, I was working for a company whose purpose was to design curriculum for Evangelism in the Episcopal Church. Our working group, about six of us, sat around a living room in Sonoma County to lay out the sessions of how to talk about our faith. The problem was – we never got past the point of talking about our faith to each other. The sessions created many opportunities for sharing, but only within the walls of the room. Again, we never took it to the street.

I know as well as anyone that Evangelism is a tough sell, especially to the kind of "quiet Christian" we tend to be – that is, a Christian who would never seek to impose one's personal belief on another, who would never tell another person how he or she should act to win favor with God, a Christian who would rather sit silent than tell someone else he or she should seek Jesus Christ. I know this as well as anyone because I am exactly that kind of quiet Christian, too.

But what I also know is this – more and more, others are speaking loudly. Often, they are speaking in ways that infer they are speaking on behalf of all Christians. More and more, I am hearing others making statements of authority in the name of Faith as if we are all painted with one brush and all have the same code of beliefs. Sometimes I agree with what is being said, and often I do not. Regardless, the rhetoric troubles me.

The question is this – isn't it time we spoke our truth? Isn't it time we threw in our two cents as well? I am drawn to the Episcopal Church because of it's wide breadth of acceptance and its variety of positions and emphasis on individual conscience. Yet, I often think our acceptance of all people and our confidence in each person's ability to cultivate a Godly relationship is the best-kept secret around. The walk of Jesus is centered on the sharing of the Good News – which I believe is the news that God is all-loving and all encompassing. We are to share it with each other, of course, but it shouldn't stop there. Jesus took it to the street. So should we.

And how does a "quiet Christian" go about doing this, you might wonder? By continuing our cultivation of a Godly relationship, by building our confidence that it is because of this relationship with God (and church) that our life is made more complete and by finding the opportunities to share our stories. If someone tells you he is going to his aunt's house for Easter, you might tell him of your plans of going to church and invite him to join you. If someone seems alone and maybe sad, you might share your experience of your faith community. There are many opportunities every day to let our particular way of faith be known. There are many chances to take it to the street. I invite each of us to give it a try – and see what happens.

Stewardship Corner

Thank-You to the Parishioners of St. James' (Again!)

Before beginning to write the article for this month's Stewardship Column, I was reading Psalm 136 where all 26 verses end with "for his steadfast love endures forever" (my 1952 Revised Standard Version, the Bible I received when I was confirmed in 1960). I think the point was made - praising God for God's generosity.

Soon afterward, I was looking through the "Joys" parishioners placed in the "Joys of St. James' Jar" from the two Stewardship Dinners last November. People were encouraged to write on little green pieces of paper what gives them Joy at St. James' and place them in the "Joys Jar." And, like "for his steadfast love endures forever", there was a common theme in the "Joys Jar" - the People, the Fellowship, the Friendships, the Sense of Community, the Friends, the Music (Choir included), the Sermons and Lori, the Feeling of Family, the Traditions and the Smiles were all reoccurring themes of the Joys people expressed when thinking about St. James' Church.

The Psalm says:

Give thanks to the Lord, for God is good; for his steadfast love endures forever.
To God who alone does great wonders, for his steadfast love endures forever.
O give thanks to the God of heavens, for his steadfast love endures forever.

And I say, praise the People of St. James' Episcopal Church, for their love, friendship, support and smiles; keep on doing good in our community and keep bringing us back for more. Now, that is Stewardship from the heart!

Easter Flower Pots for Hillside Residents

We're doing it again!! The residents at the Hillside Senior Care Center have enjoyed the beautiful little flower pots we have taken to them at Easter time so we are going to continue with the tradition again this year.

The number of flower pots and the cost is still undetermined but we are looking at approximately $5-$10 each. We plan to visit and pass out the flower pots to the residents during the last week of March.

Please keep a watch for more details in the Sunday news and the weekly emails for the final cost of the flower pots and date of our visit to the Hillside Senior Care Center. We will have two Donation Sundays in March to sign up for one or more flower pots.

Thanks for continued love and support to the Hillside Residents.

MARCH MOVIE NIGHT

"OUR VINES HAVE TENDER GRAPES"

Back on February 10, 2012, we were about to show the movie "Our Vines Have Tender Grapes," when the computer in EB-1 malfunctioned. Moving the showing to The Big Church would have meant warming it up, so we decided to postpone the showing of this 1945 movie starring Edward G. Robinson to March 9th.

Filmed at the end of WWII, the MGM studio tried to shoot as many films as possible on a shoestring and this film was no exception. The studio had perfected the art of the cycloramic backdrop and they used it to amazing effect, filming the movie at the director's ranch and in the studio itself to cut costs. See if you can tell the difference between the ranch and the studio. Major special effects in the fire and flood impressed me – we are talking 1945!

As many Norwegians were moving to Wisconsin, Martinius Jacobson, his wife Bruna and their daughter Selma are working the farm in Fuller Junction just like other Norwegian families. Martinius' dream is to build a new barn. Bruna would like some modern conveniences in the house. Young Selma and her friend Arnold play together often at odds with each other.

You have never seen Edward G. Robinson in a role like this one; no tough guy here and very believable, showing his range as an actor. Agnes Moorehead shows she has other acting chops as well. Margaret O'Brien as Selma really is the star and she got equal billing with Robinson as a result.

So, mark your calendar for March 9th at 7:00 pm, EB-1 for "Our Vines Have Tender Grapes." Bring your own snacks and beverages. Don't forget it's FREE. Out by 9:30 pm. See you at the movies.

Come Sing with the Choir on Easter Sunday!

The Adult Chancel Choir cordially invites anyone who likes to sing, or would like to give singing a try, to join us for the Easter Service! We will be singing a wonderful anthem that has a part for trumpet as well as piano, plus the joyous hymns that we only get to sing on Easter Morning! If you would like to part of the Adult Chancel Choir and sing with us at Easter, please be at the following rehearsals:

Wednesday, March 28th 8:00 pm - 9:00 pm
Wednesday, April 4th 8:00 pm - 9:00 pm
Sunday, April 8th 9:00 am - 9:45 am (Easter Sunday)

Please let the Music Director, Jennifer Carini, or any choir member know if you would like to make a joyful noise with us on Easter morning! We hope you can be part of the wonderful music on Easter Sunday.

Jennifer Carini
Music Director

Holy Week and Easter

Palm Sunday

April 1

We will begin outside with a blessing of the palms, followed by the reading of the Passion Gospel from St. Mark at the 8:00 and 10:30 services. A visual representation of Jesus' Passion will be displayed at the 10:30 service.

Maundy Thursday

April 5

A simple meal in monastic style will begin at 6:30pm. During the meal, we will have the a Liturgy of the Word and the rituals of foot washing and cross exchange. We will continue in the Main Church for Holy Communion and the stripping of the altar.

Good Friday

April 6

12-3pm: the Traditional Hours of Good Friday

From 12-2pm

A Service of Jesus' Seven Last Words with short reflections given by parishioners, prayer, and music in the Little Church.

From 2-3pm

Walking the Stations of the Cross Outside.

At 8:00pm

A Tennebrae Service of Readings and Music in the Little Church.

Easter Vigil

8:00pm April 7

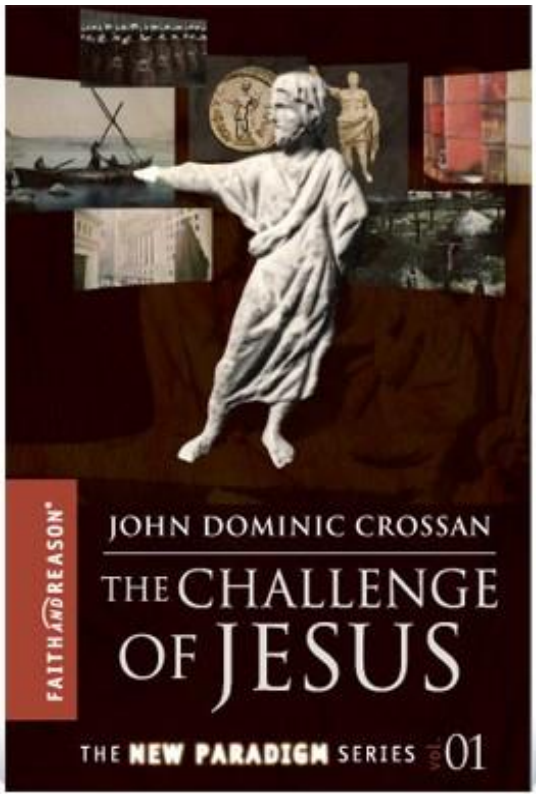
A Festive Service in the Main Church with music and Holy Communion, followed by the annual Easter Egg Hunt for Children.



Faith Formation Presents…

Sundays
March 4th, 11th, 18th & 25th
at 9:15 am
Education Building Room #1

"Savior of the World"
"King of Kings"
"Son of God"
"Exalted One"

We're talking about Jesus, right? Actually, all of these titles were given to Caesar Augustus, Emperor of Rome. The life and teachings of Jesus challenged what was meant and understood by labels like Son of God and the Savior of the World. Do we want, like the Romans, peace through victory, or do we want, like Jesus, peace through justice?

The Challenge of Jesus is a 16-part journey through the history of the Roman Empire and the life of the Jews under their rule. During March we cover Part I, The World of Jesus. We will explore how Jesus and his message fit into this time and place, and what his message continues to mean for us today. Each session includes a 15-minute video presentation by John Dominic Crossan, leaving plenty of time for discussion and sharing.

In May we will cover Part II, The Life of Jesus, and Parts III and IV, The Death of Jesus and The Resurrection of Jesus in the fall. Put on your thinking caps, and join us to explore for ourselves The Challenge of Jesus.

Our Music Director Expands Music Horizons

Jennifer Carini, St. James' music director, has a busy life full of singing. Here at St. James' she directs the St. James' Adult Chancel Choir and Children's Choir while playing the keyboard and organs in both churches. Both choirs enjoy Jennifer's sense of humor during rehearsals as well as singing the challenging and appropriate music she selects to enhance the church services.

Jennifer has also founded a new Tri-City Children's Choir for girls and boys in the second through the sixth grades. Anyone in these grades who wants to sing can join – there are no tryouts. First-graders who can read also may be eligible. There are already 14 singers, and she hopes many more children will want to try singing in a choir.

Rehearsals for the children's choir are once a week on Tuesdays from 6:00 pm to 7 :00 pm at St. Anne's Episcopal Church. Some goals for the group are to perform two concerts a year – spring and fall – and to learn some songs in other languages such as Russian, Spanish, Mandarin, and Bantu.

Jennifer was motivated to found the Tri-City choir so that her daughter Olivia would be able to have a choir experience such as her brother Joey has had with the Golden Gate Boys' Choir. The cost to participate in the choir is $50 a month.

As choir teacher at Caesar Chavez Junior High School, Jennifer has five choirs – that's 210 singing young folks she teaches every day! The New Haven School District is one of the few public school districts in California that has been able to continue to support music education.

This busy woman's activities don't stop there. Jennifer is also the secretary of the New Haven Teachers' Association. At St. Anne's, where she assisted its longtime choir director, she directs music for a 4:00 pm. Recovery Eucharist on the first Sunday of the month. In addition, Jennifer's parents have recently moved to Santa Clara from Reno to accommodate her father's health concerns.

Her musical career began with piano lessons in first grade. She says she realized she had a strong, beautiful voice when she was in the seventh grade, and managed to trade piano lessons for voice lessons when she was 16. She went on to graduate with a Bachelor of Music degree from Westminster Choir College in Princeton, N.J., specializing in singing and piano.

!! Chip in for Chairs !!

Think the chairs in the Main Church could use some up-dating? Find that half-way through the service, you're feeling a little uncomfortable (and it has nothing to do with the sermon)? You are invited to Chip in for Chairs!

From now until Holy Week, we are raising money to reupholster our pew chairs in the Main Church. Consider donating $80 towards a chair, put a check to St. James' (marked "pew chairs") in the box at the back of the Church, and place a blue sticker on the chart so we can track our progress. Look for a spiffed-up sanctuary on Easter!

Lenten Evensong Service

The Golden Gate Boys Choir and Bellringers will be performing a Lenten Evensong Service at St. James' on Thursday, March 15th at 7:00 pm in the Big Church. Joey Carini, son of our Music Director Jennifer Carini, is a member of the choir. This choir is well-known throughout the Bay Area and the world for their outstanding musicianship and dedication. You will hear the angelic sounds of unchanged boys voices, changed men voices, and six octaves of handbells.

The St. James Adult Chancel Choir will provide light refreshments in the Parish Hall immediately following the service.

We hope to see you there!

FOUR-FOLD BENEDICTINE BLESSING

By Sr. Ruth Fox, OSB (1985)

May God bless you with a restless discomfort about easy answers, half-truths and superficial relationships, so that you may seek truth boldly and love deep within your heart.

May God bless you with holy anger at injustice, oppression, and exploitation of people, so that you may tirelessly work for justice, freedom, and peace among all people.

May God bless you with the gift of tears to shed with those who suffer from pain, rejection, starvation, or the loss of all that they cherish, so that you may reach out your hand to comfort them and transform their pain into joy.

May God bless you with enough foolishness to believe that you really CAN make a difference in this world, so that you are able, with God's grace, to do what others claim cannot be done.

And the blessing of God the Supreme Majesty and our Creator,
Jesus Christ the Incarnate Word who is our brother and Saviour,
and the Holy Spirit, our Advocate and Guide,
be with you and remain with you, this day and forevermore.

AMEN

St. James' Annual Easter Egg Hunt

St. James' Annual Easter Egg Hunt is just around the corner and we are looking for some help in preparing for this fun event. This is a wonderful-fun event for children 0-10 to spend some memorable moments with Mom & Dad as they hunt for eggs.

Since St. James' is so fortunate to have such multi-talented helpers, we invite you to fill some plastic eggs with goodies and other playful items for the festivities (let your imagination go wild). The empty eggs can be picked up in the Parish Hall starting March 4th ready to fill. This year we are pleased once again to have St. J Youth help with this event by hiding the eggs once they are filled. Please take a bag or even two and return them (filled) by April 1st or by 9:00 am Easter morning (at the latest) so St. J Youth can hide them during the 10:00 am service.

This is a fun time for everyone so come join us after the service, Easter morning.

Hope to see you there! Happy Easter

Shrove Tuesday

On Feburary 21st, we celebrated Shrove Tuesday, St. James' Pancake Supper. It has been a long time tradition that the men of the parish take over and do the prep, the cooking and the most fun of all, the cleaning. They "slaved" in the kitchen, cooking a wonderful feast of scrambled eggs, sausage and fluffy pancakes. The St. J Youth helped out again this year serving the wonderful turnout of hungry people.

This was a wonderful time to share fellowship and a great meal the night before we begin the Lenten Season with Ash Wednesday. Many thanks to all who helped out, especially the wonderful men of St. James'.

EASY WAYS TO REMEMBER YOUR CHURCH

Perhaps, occasionally, you have thought about including the church in your "estate." "Estate" may sound grandiose. Not so. It is just what we leave behind. The next thought is often, it must be complicated ... Then the idea -- a good one -- can drift away. BUT, it is quite simple! Some ideas:

Make Your Church a Beneficiary of Your IRA/401k)/403(b)

Just call the toll-free number on your monthly plan statement and ask for a "Change of Beneficiary" form. Or download it from the Internet. Fill in the blanks, including the percentage you wish to leave to the church. (No attorney needed!) Of course, you will continue to have access to all your funds for as long as you live. But when you no longer need them, the percentage you have chosen will pass, (tax-free!), to the church.

Make Your Church a Beneficiary of a Life Insurance Policy

Just call the insurance company and ask for a "Change of Beneficiary" form. Or download it. Fill it out as above. (Again, no attorney needed!)

Leave a Bequest to Your church

Add a codicil to your will or an amendment to your trust to provide a specific dollar amount, or a percentage of the remainder, to the church (You may want to check with an attorney on this one.)

There are many ways to include your church in your personal legacy. The best way for you depends upon your circumstances and intentions. To further explore your options, contact your Gift Planning Office, (information below) or visit www.EpiscopalGift.org

SPRING FORWARD

Daylight Saving Time begins on March 11, 2012 at 2:00 am. This means we will move our clocks forward one hour. What most people think is they will be losing one hour's sleep that night. I like to think you can start and enjoy your day one hour earlier.

So remember to Spring Forward so you won't be late for church service that Sunday.
