Seasonal Pondering

If I had to define a specific moment that I fell in love with the Church, I would say it was when I awakened to the seasons of the calendar – of Lent, Easter, Pentecost and so on. The awareness brought into consciousness the movement from one to the next, the changing light in the sanctuary and in the sky, the elevation of a dove, the bowing down to an infant, the smudge of death on a forehead, the emptiness of a tomb that held meaning for eternity. The Church lives its life in these moments, moving from image to symbol, from action to silence and back again. It holds tightly to these cycles defined not only on a calendar but in the color, music, and movement of worship. It is these seasons that give shape to our spiritual lives.

The season of Advent is one of waiting with bated breath the coming of the Christ. It is a season as rich as those of Easter or Lent or other. Yet unlike the others, it is the one in most glaring and direct conflict with the world. How does one wait in anticipation while being pushed to get it all done in time for Christmas? How does one live in the mystery of an empty manger while being bombarded with messages of filling up the shopping cart? How does one remember that this is NOT the Season of Giving, but it is instead the Season of Receiving – of receiving the greatest gift ever given – the gift of God made flesh in the world? How does one do it?

Intentionally. With purpose, and perhaps with a bit of rebellion. Each year we run through the same cycle – culture tells us one thing and the church tells us another and it seems that there is always a tension, a pulling back and forth. I'm not sure it is a struggle that will ever subside. There will always be "holiday" commercials, and there will always be the voice of the church telling us to slow down - an instruction that seems impossible at times.

This is the Season of Advent. It is ours to claim and live in to. We do not need permission from the world to slow down and wait. We simply need permission from ourselves. We have much to do, for our families, for our community, and yes, even for our church. But at the end of each day, the only thing left to do will be to take off our shoes. And if there is no other time that can be found to simply wait and acknowledge the coming of the Christ Child, then let this be it.

Take off your shoes, pause, and remember how Holy the ground on which you stand is, wherever you might be. Christ will be born and our lives will be blessed, and the Holy ground on which we stand will always be firm. May these Advent and Christmas days hold the wonder and beauty found in a newborn baby. May you know the gift that supersedes all.

An Invitation to Giving

St. Paul speaks of two motivations for giving of ourselves, our time, and our possessions to God's work. In 2 Corinthians 8:9, he appeals to the model and example of Jesus and asks us to give as Jesus did. In 2 Corinthians 9:8, he reminds us that God promises to richly supply all that is needed for us to continue to give.

"For you know the generous act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich." 2 Corinthians 8:9

The model of Jesus and the promise of God's provision motivate us to be generous. Our generosity honors God, the source of all generosity. Our generosity makes God's purposes known. By God's power, our generosity provides the announcement of the Good News of salvation and the deeds of mercy, the actions of love, which serve the needs of people everywhere.

"God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that by always having enough of everything, you may share abundantly in every good work." 2 Corinthians 9:8

Our generosity draws us closer to God, the Giver of all good gifts. Generous deeds shape our lives and our understandings. Through generosity we begin to know more deeply and more broadly the graciousness of God. Generosity does not change God's behavior toward us, but it changes our behavior toward God.

The response to Pledge Sunday has been very good. As of November 18th, 88 pledges totaling $242,766 have been received ($210,234 for Operating and $32,532 for Building). For 2010 we have 110 pledges, so we still have a ways to go. If you haven't had the opportunity to share your generosity, I invite you to do so soon so that your gifts may be included as the Vestry prepares the budget for the coming year. I ask you to prayerfully consider using the gifts God has given you to do the work God is calling us to do.

I praise God for the generosity of this congregation, both now and in the year to come.

Stewardship Chair

Tax-Tips for Prudent Stewards Some end-of-year reminders

To increase your April tax refund, pre-pay as much of your 2011 charitable pledge as practical before December 31. Make your treasurer twice as happy by clearly designating your gift as counting toward your 2011 pledge.

Avoid paying capital gains on the sale of appreciated securities by using them to make your charitable gifts. You may gift them to your congregation via the Diocese without any transaction fees. Ask me how.

Consider exchanging a bank CD for a charitable gift annuity with a much higher payout, a 2011 tax deduction, and a gift to your church.

Advance tax deductions for future charitable gifts by establishing a Donor Advised Fund (DAF) before December 31. Episcopal Charities sponsors a DAF that is administered by the East Bay Community Fund.

Consider bundling your deductions and making your giving more effective by trading in your charitable giving shotgun for a rifle. By focusing your charitable investment to five organizations or less, you may garner an enhanced sense of making a difference in the lives and missions you support.

For further information, please contact your gift planning officer.

Finally: pray constantly and be as generous to others as God has been to you.

His first concert for us in 2004 drew a sellout crowd of St. James' folks and people from around the Bay Area. Audience reviews have raved about each of his concerts, which have played to a full house. John's concert next January at St. James' will be his eighth concert at our venue.

This is an incredible way to support St. James'. Ticket prices are the same as last year, namely $25 for adults, $15 for kids 5-12, and children under 5 are admitted free. Tickets to John's show make popular holiday gifts! And back by popular demand - a fantastic drawing to be held during intermission for special prizes. Tickets for the drawing will go on sale beginning on December 5 as well.

We are still seeking folks to help sell tickets at our sales table on Sundays. If you could help, please contact Joan Roberts. If you would like to donate raffle prizes, please contact Cathy Knotts.

Christmas Music in 2010

There will be plenty of special music to enjoy this Christmas at St. James'. At the 4:00pm service with the children, organist Royston Nguyen will accompany the Christmas Carols and perform Christmas organ music before and during the service. Royston is currently employed as a part time organist at St. Edwards in Newark and St. Margaret Mary's in Oakland. He comes highly recommended. We are fortunate to have him share his musical skills with us for Christmas.

At the 7:00pm and 11:00pm services, we will introduce flutist Lynn Lightsey. Lynn is a member of the Redwood Symphony Orchestra and plays both flute and piccolo. She has a Master's Degree in flute performance from Cal State East Bay. Lynn and Katherine have performed together for many years in church as well as performing recitals together. Jodi Benson is returning for Christmas and will sing "The Huron Indian" carol at both services.

Last but certainly not least, our choir members will support both services. We will have a partial choir at 7:00pm and a full choir at 10:30pm. EJ Hilliard will sing "Sweet Little Jesus Boy" during Communion at both services. Our anthem will be "Gaudete" arranged by Craig Kingsbury with English verses. This is a lively and well-known Renaissance Carol which will be sung during the Offertory at the 11:00pm service.

We look forward to celebrating Christmas with you at St. James' Episcopal Church.

Thank You for the New Shoes

Thank you all for your continued support of this annual outreach activity. We concluded our new shoe appeal and delivered 37 $20 gift cards totaling $740 to Abode Services in early October. We received this note from acknowledging our donation.

Thank you for your dedicated commitment.*

We need an election!

Our Parish Annual Meeting will take place on February 13th 2011. At this meeting we will elect 4 new members for the Vestry to serve for a term of 3 years. This year Jan Scrutton, Penny Trant, Scott Kennedy and Charlie Paratore will be coming to the end of their terms on the Vestry.

The Vestry is made of 12 members, all serving 3 year terms. They work together as a team but are also responsible for representing different clusters on the Vestry. The clusters are Parish Life, Facilities, Worship and Christian Formation, Social Ministries and Congregational Care and Communication & Evangelism. The roles are assigned by the Rector and Senior Warden taking into account people's skills and interests.

To serve on the Vestry, you need to be an active member of St. James' or interested in taking a greater role. It doesn't matter if you have served before or have no previous experience. Vestry meetings are on the second Thursday of each month from 6.30pm. Each member picks a month to provide dinner for the group. The 2011 Vestry retreat will be on Saturday February 26th, with a Vestry social on the evening of Friday, February 25th.

If you are interested in standing for election to the St James' Vestry please email or speak to one of the 4 retiring members for an information sheet. If you know anyone you think should stand - talk to them!

There are lots of ways to serve at St James', Vestry is only one of them, but please think about whether you could serve in this way.

KEEP your eyes on the prince of peace, the one who doesn't cling to his divine power; the one who refuses to turn stones into bread, jump from great heights, and rule with great power...; the one who touches the lame, the crippled, and the blind, the one who speaks words of forgiveness and encouragement... Keep your eyes on him who becomes poor with the poor, weak with the weak. He is the source of all peace.
