St James' trip to the Oakland A's

We have tickets for a baseball game at 7:05pm on Saturday June 26th. Oakland Athletics vs. Pittsburg Pirates. Our lower box seats are $30 each and profits from our ticket sales come back to St James'. The game is also an A's give-away and the first 15,000 arrivals at the Coliseum will receive an A's Joe Rudi baseball jersey.

This is a great opportunity to get together and have some fun, see baseball and support church all at the same time! Invite family, friends and neighbors and order your tickets by giving a check to Jan Scrutton or Mary Casas (payable to St James' and labeled A's game) by June 11th. Email srwarden@saintj.com with questions.

Go A's!

Favorite Things

Do you have a favorite book you would like others to read? A favorite plant or place to have coffee? How about a preserve or cake you make? Or maybe a museum you enjoy visiting? As part of our St James' Day celebration this year, on Sunday July 25th, we'll be having a raffle of 'favorite things'. Tickets will be drawn throughout the event for each of the donated prizes.

Prizes need not be expensive but should be new. If you'd like to include a tag explaining why you want to share this item please do (For a gift card for a restaurant what do you like to order? What is your favorite bit of the book or why do you like the plant so much)

If you would like to donate a prize, which represents something you enjoy and would like to share, please let Jan Scrutton know (srwarden@saintj.com) and deliver it to church by July 18th. Cakes etc can be delivered on July 25th, but please let Jan know in advance.

Raffle tickets will be on sale in July for you to share in this potluck opportunity to try something new!

Talent

After the pledge card is turned in and we have received our pledge envelopes, we begin giving our treasure each month by paying our pledge. For some, it may stop there; but for many at St. James', it's just the beginning. We have so many wonderful volunteers at St. James' who not only share their talent with the church, but also out in the Community.

Some people are hesitant to share their talent for many reasons ("I'm too busy" or "I don't have anything to offer" or "I'm afraid I'll fail or be embarrassed" or "they wouldn't want me"). I've been there and have used most of the excuses. One of my earliest memories of "volunteering" or using my talent was with my junior high youth group. We raked leaves for elderly members of our (Presbyterian) church in Minneapolis (where there are plenty of leaves to rake). It turned out to be fun, and we roasted hot dogs afterwards (yes, burning some of those leaves). When my daughter started school, I volunteered at her school and then, of course, there was Brownies. Each time, it became easier, less scary, and more meaningful. Now it is just part of my daily life. From my own experience, I have learned that I get much more in return than I give by making new friends, learning how to do something new (learning a new skill), and just enjoying the experience of giving. God has given each of us special talents to be used to help each other. Using your talent for God's work is one of the most personally fulfilling and meaningful experiences you'll ever have.

We are also responsible for passing on the faith to future generations. How we interact with people in front of our children teaches valuable lessons on how to live. Our participation at Mass and in ministries prepares a roadmap for ourselves and those with whom we have influence on how to lead a Christ-centered life. And what more valuable lesson to teach children than giving of ourselves to help others. Children learn by example. Most adults who volunteer can no doubt reflect back on their youth or a time when someone had an influence on them - a parent, grandparent, neighbor, Sunday School teacher, youth leader - and instilled in them the attitude and joy of doing something for the good of others. I am hopeful that I have been a good example to my daughter and grandchildren.

There are lots of opportunities for you to share your talent at St. James'. Whether it's helping at a Saturday work party, singing in the choir, washing

Dishes at the pancake dinner, serving on a committee, helping with a meal at the homeless shelter, knitting and crocheting with the Comforters, teaching Sunday School, helping with the Youth Group, or any of the tens of other activities that are happening at St. James' -- no experience is needed. There will always be somebody to help and show you the way. Each of us, if we are honest with ourselves, can carve out a little time each week or each month to use what we have been given by God for the common good. And you'll be so glad you did!

In closing, I invite you to consider joining the Stewardship Committee. We meet at 5:30 p.m. on the 3rd Tuesday of most months, and we think we are a fun bunch to hang out with! Again, no experience is needed. Call me if you have questions (510/490-7565) -- or just want to learn more about this or any opportunity to share your talent at St. James'.

Bridges

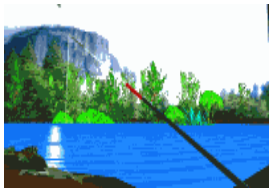
By Kathy ✝

I read somewhere (and I'm sorry I don't remember where) about a theologian priest who said there are as many ways to pray as there are people who pray. Brilliant observation, I thought. This statement directed my thinking into our communal worship. Is it possible to accommodate more styles of prayer into a service that we've agreed has some value and some purpose in our lives?

We have lots of prayers and lots of words in a worship service. Have we left room to pray and contemplate quietly, too? If we have eyes to see, ears to hear, hands to touch, mouths to speak, noses to smell, are we able to engage those senses in different combinations?

There have been debates about how to do this, when to do this. Adding various elements, here and there, can encourage the use of those senses. I am reminded of our use of the Tibetan bowl that rings out over the congregation. There is the smell of flowers in the worship spaces sometimes. We don't use wax candles very much anymore, but there was a distinctive smell when they were extinguished at the end of a service. We grasp hands and exchange hugs at the Peace, some of us lift our hands up at parts of the prayers, and sometimes I need to close my eyes and bow my head to focus on a particular prayer of that moment.

Whatever your practices in prayer, go forth and keep with it. Through it all, time and time again, through centuries of witness, people have looked at the practice and power of prayer to carry them and us through the myriad events of this life. Pray without ceasing is a worthy goal. For a (possibly) new practice, turn to page 810 in the Book of Common Prayer and see the index for Prayers and Thanksgivings. Some 81 prayers are listed. If you and I pray those prayers, three each day, we will pray through that list in a month. I offer that as a journey of prayer book prayers for June 2010!



MEN'S GROUP 3rd ANNUAL TRIP

The Men's Group at St James' needs to mark their calendar for 07/29 - 08/01 for our 3rd annual trip to Arnold. It's a fun time we spend in cabins getting to know new and old members. There is great food, great company, hiking, golf, fishing, and its just plain relaxing. Last year we had about 16 members attend and no complaints.

We hope you can join in this wonderful opportunity with the men of St. James'. If you have any questions, please give me a call 510-795-1870 or send an email to dgfeeney@comcast.net.

Dear Friends,

It's been a long 4 ½ months but I'm back in my home just as if nothing had ever happened. It's magically spring – bright with blooms and blossoms – my favorite time of the year.

Thanks to all of you for your prayers, cards, notes of encouragement, and the Christmas Eve greeting of Merry Christmas during this time. I am certain they hastened my recovery.

It's hard to express how GOOD it feels to be home, in my own surroundings with my loving family. What a blessing they are!!

When it comes to "Prayer Power" St James' wins hands down.

Blessings,

Doris Whitaker

Duck Race Recap

The Ducks are gone for a year, and the aprons put away. One of our parishioners won the 6th prize ($200 gift certificate for Jockey products). This year we had our own drawing just for St. James' Duck supporters. It was held on Sunday, April 25th. Winners were: Ralph Locher (Spaghetti Dinner Basket); Ian Perry (Movie Night Gift Basket); Katie Cunning ham ($50 Macy's Card); Lauren Doherty ($50 Elephant Bar Card); Kathy Crary ($25 Elephant Bar Card); Mark Turgeon ($25 Starbuck's Card); and Phil Johnsen ($25 Claim Jumper Card). A huge "thank you" to Penny Trant, Cathy Knotts, Brad Hoffman, and the Blalocks for prize donations. A special prize was given to Rev. Kathy because she was so quick to get into the swim of the race. Among Kathy's cherished souvenirs is a coveted, authentic "St. James' Duck Club" apron!

The Fremont "Kiwanis" Club sponsors this annual event. "Selling organizations" like St. James' have only to sell the ducks pre-coded to St. James'. This year we earned $1,298 from Duck sales and an additional $50 contribution, for a total of $1,348! Thank you to everyone who bought Ducks and who helped make this a very successful event.

This year a a respectable 7,411 little rubber duckies fought it out to the finish line. Brad Hoffman collected St. James' check at a Kiwanis meeting and presented it to the parish. On Race Day at Lake Elizabeth you could see Tom and Gail Blalock selling Kiwanis Ducks assisted by Brad Hoffman. Parishioners seen checking out the Ducks included Cathy Knotts & Mitchell Pinnix, Bob & Bobbie Tomkinson, and Mike, Jan, Beth, & Tom Scrutton (and a possible sighting of Bud Spalding, too). It was a fun day at Central Park.

Thank You for your Support!

2nd Annual St.James' Feast July 25th

Where in the world is Faith Formation?

Perhaps it would be more accurate to ask, "Where Will Faith Formation be in the Fall Season of 2010?" Surely, Faith Formation will be at St. James', but will it be flourishing and blooming? The answer depends, at least partially, on the willingness of us all to provide suggestions for Faith Formation classes, and the willingness of some parishioners to help present or host a class or two.

On June 23, the Faith Formation committee will be meeting to establish a series of Sunday 9:15am adult classes for the fall season. We really do depend on guidance from parishioners to set up an inviting and effective program.

Do you have class ideas? Know of an interesting book or speaker or current event? Have you ever thought about something you'd like to learn more about? Please fill in the accompanying "Suggestions for Faith Formation" form and submit it to the committee (or to the Parish Office) no later than June 20.

For further information or with questions, please contact any member of the team: Marnie Hartmann, EJ Hilliard, Alice Johnson, John Maloney (chair), Bruce Roberts, and Meg Williams.

Baaby Shower

Ladies, mark your calendars! The Ferros are expecting a boy! There will be a baby shower on Sunday, June 27th, in the parish hall at 1:30pm. Join us! Look for an RSVP sheet in the parish hall starting on June 6th. Sign up to bring a finger food and/or drinks! Allison and Stephen are both active at St. James'. She was the data analyst on the Transition Team and Stephen is on the Vestry. They are regular attendees at the 10:30 service and sit in the front on the far left-hand side with their two-year old daughter Lucy

Loving Your Survivors

"The minister of the congregation is _____ to _____ the people, from time to time, about the ____ of Christian parents to make prudent _____ for the well-being of their families, and of _____ persons to make ____, while they are in _____, arranging for the disposal of their _____, not neglecting, if they are able to leave _____ for religious and charitable uses."

Use the following words to fill in the blanks in this paragraph from The Book of Common Prayer (page 445, if you want to peek):
health temporal goods provision instruct bequests duty directed all wills

Three questions:

1. Why do you think The Book Of Common Prayer speaks of "the duty" to make a will?
2. Why do you think that one in two Episcopalians die without a will?
3. Did you know that you can meet with an attorney and make a simple will for as little as $75 through the church's gift planning office?

For the sake of your survivors, don't leave any blanks in your estate planning. Instead practice faithful stewardship of all God has placed into your hands. Given the uncertainties of life, timing is everything.

Cursillo Corner

By Bob and Debbie Czerinski

The Cursillo weekend can be a very moving and sometimes even a life-changing experience. In either case, God touches those present and open to the experience in the ways he/she needs to be touched. He speaks to each in ways he/she can hear His personal message for the life after the 3 day Cursillo weekend, what we call "The 4th Day".

To understand more and see this for yourself, we invite you to speak to our new Cursillistas at St. James': Burtin and Elizabeth Hart, Gloria Romeo and Laura Samuels, who all experienced Cursillo at the latest Anglican Co-ed Cursillo, and Lea Lucas, who experienced her Cursillo in the beginning of June at the San Francisco/San Mateo Women's Cursillo. We're sure they'll be happy to talk about their 3-day moment with God.

For those of you who are interested in experiencing a Cursillo and seeing how it can enrich your life through God's personal message, the following are the upcoming Cursillo weekends. Please note that they all take place at the Cursillo Center (CASA) in San Francisco:

September 23 – 26, 2010 SF/SM Men's Cursillo
October 7 – 10, 2010 SF/SM Women's Cursillo
May 12 – 15, 2011 Next East Bay Anglican Co-ed Cursillo

For those of you who have already experienced your Cursillo, SF/SM Cursillo Community invites you to a Potluck Ultreya to celebrate the new Cursillistas from the Men's May and Women's June Cursillo's.

Date: June 19th
Time: 11:00am – 3:00pm
Place: St. Peter's Catholic Church, 700 Oddstad Blvd, Pacifica

For further information, feel free to contact us (510 793-6427).

Prayer Shawl Ministry

Blessings to women who are part of St. James' Prayer Shawl Ministry. Prayer Shawls are given by Eucharistic Ministers or Kathy Crary + , our priest, to St. James' members who are in special need of loving care or a celebration such as the birth of a baby. If you have never knitted or crocheted one, you should know this about them:

- Because this is a spiritual practice, before one begins working each time, a blessing, prayer or thanksgiving is said, dedicating the work of your hands and the intentions of the receiver.
- The shawls are wide and very long, 58 to 60 inches, so that they can be wrapped warmly around anyone's body and arms.
- They take a long time to make and are crafted with loving care and often special designs.

Sometimes when you are around members of the team or at a Comforters' meeting you will hear someone say, "Wow! I'm never going to make one of those again!" But then one hears a story or receives a warm and loving "Thank You" note from a recipient of a Prayer Shawl. And that makes all the difference!

In addition to a lovely "Thank You" note this month from a St. James' member, we heard a heart-warming story from Debbie Fuller. On a trip to Grace Cathedral for a conference, she took a Prayer Shawl to Bishop Marc who was recovering from surgery. Debbie said that he was especially touched by the gift, partly because he remembered that his Mother had knitted Prayer Shawls. He immediately wrapped it around himself and wore it throughout the conference, warmly thanking her again before she left.

Anyone may join these craft workers. Janet Fischer is the Shepherd of the group, and others who participate are Meg Williams, Enid Williams, Bobbie Tomkinson, Maggie Shalar, Laura Samuels, Connie Rux, Linda Nelsen, Sandy Jaekel, Sally Dickinson, Barbara Dabney, and Valle Brokes.
