The Importance of Silence

I ran across an article the other day entitled "How the Power of Silence Becomes Magnified When It's Shared." [Link below] The article begins with a story about the drafting of the U.S. Constitution. Apparently, in Philadelphia in the summer of 1787 when the Founding Fathers gathered in Independence Hall, there was a strange site. Right in front of the hall was a gigantic mound of dirt. Concerned about the noise of carriages, street vendors, and outside conversations disturbing their work, the delegates ordered the mound of dirt as a way of acting as a noise barrier. While they were not going for monastic silence – their deliberations often included raised voices and vocal disagreements, there was a recognition that preserving exterior quiet would benefit their efforts.

Six years ago I spent 30 days in silence at the El Retiro Retreat Center in Los Altos. Other than daily mass and a 30 minute session with a spiritual director, no words were spoken out loud. The world fell away, and with it, the chaotic noise was silenced. At the end of those 30 days, I got in my car and drove home and was stunned by how noisy the world was. Even the sound of the car tires on the road seemed to be a few decibels too high. I realized quickly how much the world does not know how to be quiet. It does not come naturally to human societies. Like that dirt mound in front of Independence Hall, we need to be intentional about creating silence.

The noise of these days is not only loud, but it is often chilling and disturbing. We cannot, and should not, close our ears to it. However, we will not be able to weather these times if we do not balance the noise with quiet moments. Summer is upon us which means longer days and opportunities to dwell in spaces other than where we might dwell in our everyday lives. Perhaps you will find time to go camping or a long drive up the coast. Maybe your summer will include quiet days at home, puttering in the garden or around the house. Whatever it looks like, claiming silence is important.

The article mentioned above goes on to talk about the effort to teach our Congress how to meditate together, and how that shared silence is magnified and made more powerful together, as a community. We know this to be true because we experience this shared silence at church. Throughout our liturgy, we have times of quiet – after the homily is delivered, we sit quietly in reflection. While communion is being distributed, we patiently wait together until everyone has received. During the Prayers of the People, we pause after each intercession, drawing our attention to God.

Shared silence is important, and in these fractured times, I believe it is essential for our well-being. As the summer progresses, I look forward to seeing all of you in the sanctuary, taking our sacred moments to just be quiet for a time, together.

Women's Beach Weekend Returns this September

St James' Ladies Flatlanders trip to the shore is back September 15-18 this year. Our annual retreat full of friends, faith, fellowship, and fun is held just steps from the beach at Pajaro Dunes on Monterey Bay.
We rent a townhouse overlooking the ocean, and spend time together chatting, playing cards and dominoes, walking along the shore, and eating lots of good food! It is a wonderful opportunity to get to know each other better, share stories, and just relax. We welcome all ladies aged 21-99. Some have attended every year, others for one or two, and we are always looking for new people to join us. If the house is full, the cost is approximately $170 each.

Due to the ongoing challenges of Covid, these precautions must be followed: Each person must be fully vaccinated to attend the weekend, and show proof of a negative test the day you leave for the weekend. We take extra steps to stay healthy while together in the townhouse. Last year we enjoyed a fun-filled weekend and everybody remained well. Please let us know if you are interested in participating this year.
Contact one or all of the organizers:

Nancy Castaneda: ncastaneda@icloud.com
Mary Casas: marcasas@comcast.net
Laura Winter: laura.winter@comcast.net and let us know if you want to go or have questions. We encourage ideas as to how we can make the weekend happen safely and comfortably.

Saintj.com Website Refresh – Summer 2022

If you've visited our website saintj.com recently, you'll have noticed that we've refreshed it to make it easier for newcomers and regular visitors alike to find their way around. Popular pages, such as information for church seekers, links for online services and zoom meetings, upcoming events and copies of The Window can be easily reached from the homepage, with many of the pages having photos associated with them for easy navigation.

Depending on what device you're using to visit, the website will look slightly different. Viewing on a phone will reflow all the images and text into one long column, and whatever device you're using turning the screen from landscape to portrait and back will adjust the layout to best fit your view.

The change might mean that your familiar links have moved slightly. Upcoming Events, and links to livestreams and sermons have moved to the bottom for all devices. The menus have been tidied-up to make popular pages easier to find.

The saintj.com website continues to be updated regularly, with information about St. James', details of upcoming events both in-person and livestreamed, and links to past recordings.

If you've not checked it out recently, do pay the website a visit!

Men's Summer Trip

Last year we had a small turnout due to Covid concerns and smoke from the fires. This year we are dealing with a more aggressive form of the omicron variants. It's not as deadly but hospitals, ERs, and ICUs are getting hit hard.

Most of our attendees are 65 + and some have contracted Covid and recovered. The latest surge has me concerned and I have discussed this with Rev. Lori and our Jr. and Sr. Wardens. I thought of cancelling it all together, but now I am going to take a "wait and see" attitude. I will see what the next 1.5 - 2 months turn up. If the fire season is bad that may influence my decision more.

If we do have to postpone it, I may have our group get together for a golf outing and a dinner outside. Feel free to reach out to me for suggestions or new ideas. The main goal is fellowship and I want to bring more guys who are new to St James' into our group.

Thank you and stay well!

High School Graduation

Each year at St. James' we try to acknowledge milestones. In service we celebrate birthdays, anniversaries and graduations and each summer we reach out to our graduating high school seniors to find out more of their plans.

Callie Patton has worshipped at St. James' for over 5 years with her mom Kimberly. In that time she been in youth group, helped with Altar Guild and with Summer Camp. Callie has been among our groups who have slept at Grace Cathedral and overnight at church for our Easter Vigils. She particularly remembers being part of the Las Posadas parade around campus and enjoyed the opportunity to socialize with everyone.

Callie graduated from Fremont Christian High school. The return to in person school this year meant Callie has enjoyed school choir and a house building trip to Mexico.

Callie has committed to a college in Abilene, Texas where she plans to study towards her eventual goal of working in speech therapy. Callie shared: One thing I learned while enjoying my time at this church was that a close-knit community is really amazing for holding different events and making a lot of beautiful memories. A community like this is really hard to find elsewhere, so I will be really sad to bid farewell to it during college, but I promise I will visit as much as I can.

We wish Callie all the best and hold her in our prayers as she heads off to college.

Sunday School for all children aged 4 to 7th grade meets during the 10:30am service. The children leave the service with Jan before the lessons and return in time for the Eucharist with their families. In addition to hearing a story (our curriculum usually follows the lectionary) the children respond to the story with coloring, art, building or other projects. High schoolers interested in helping out occasionally at Sunday School should contact Jan: jan@saintj.com for more details and information on the short online training course. Our back catalogue of Sunday School book readings can be found HERE.

Episcopal Youth Fremont usually meets on the 2nd Sunday of the month and will meet for the last time this school year on Sunday, June 12th from 6-8 PM. All 6th-12th graders are welcome to join us for fun, fellowship and faith-based conversations. Contact jan@saintj.com for details.

Episcopal Youth Fremont (EYF) welcomes all young people interested in gathering for fun, fellowship, and faith-based conversations.

John McCutcheon Concert June 13, 2022

What a night! Best Ever! Better than the Last Time! Yes, John McCutcheon sang again – to us and we with him – after missing out since 2020 due to the dreaded Covid-19. Worth the wait? Absolutely! One often wonders about what new subjects he can possibly write. Yet, he did it again. At least seven of last night's songs also appear on "Cabin Fever" or "Bucket List," John's most recent recordings. 'Zilphia's Piano,' upon which 'We Shall Overcome' was derived, was wildly applauded. Other subjects such as 'Earth" and 'When All of This is Over' certainly gave us all thoughts to ponder.

John responded to a request for a baseball song with one that really wasn't about baseball ('Sara Tucholsky') even though a baseball game was pictured. Do you know that the requested 'Love Potion #9' followed a request in 2019 – was it the same person who requested it?

Many folks in the audience appreciated 'Old People in Love.' "My name is Francis Tolliver…." started the yearly request of 'Christmas in the Trenches' – Whose family is in my sights?

Of course, we sang along with John. 'This Land Is Your Land' near the end of the cool (in more than one way) evening was another perennial favorite, as was 'Kindergarten Wall.' 'The Great Storm is Over' rocked the Club Saint J.

What else? For those in the cast and crew, after all their hard work, dinner with John and Tommy Slothower (John's Road Manager), Tesser and Brian (lLghts and Sound) was much appreciated, specially the homemade Apple Pie (for those who cleaned their plate). Happy faces showed on the winners with winning drawing tickets. Some audience members stopped by the CD table for music to keep the evening going.

It's important to note that John McCutcheon will return (I'll Be Back) on January 16, 2023, Martin Luther King, Jr. Day. Note the date on your calendar now!

Summary of our McCutcheon Concert on June 13, 2022

Our postponed John McCutcheon Concert on Monday June 13, 2022 was a success. We sold 149 adult tickets and 2 child tickets. 57% of ticket holders were non-parishioners. Ticket sales totaled $4500. The prize drawing, with 22 prizes donated by 15 generous parishioners, generated a record $1040. The cookies donated by our parishioners for the snack bar were delicious and brought in an additional $125. Our expenses totaled $5067.40. We netted $771.60. The McCutcheon Team is asking the Vestry to approve a donation of $1000 to ABODE Services.

This fundraising and community outreach event could not have happened without a lot of help. There were more than 50 people who contributed time, talent, and treasure not only on the night of the concert but in the months preceding the event, and countless people who offered prayers and encouragements along the way. Our heart-felt thank you for all your help, support, and ministering.

Vestry Voices: Expressions of Love @ St. James'

This month's reflections are from Beverly Mosier

No question. St. James' is an active, caring, and supportive parish. The multitude of ministries, as well as the many individual actions and contributions -- too numerous to record -- are an ongoing testament to that fact. The list of expressions of love at St. James' goes around the block.

But why?

The underlying explanation is that the members of St. James' are people of faith. We subscribe to the foundational tenets that we are to:

> Love the Lord our God with all our hearts, souls, minds, and strength
> Love our neighbors as ourselves.

We believe we can approach God directly any time, anywhere. We can bask in God's omnipotence, omniscience and omnipresence and allow the Holy Spirit to fill us and guide us. We can also plug into God's infinite love as the source of energy and insight needed to genuinely love others, even those who are "unfamiliar" in our experience and/or marginalized.

We believe that all human beings are precious and valuable in God's sight. Therefore, we strive to embrace and stand up for people of every race, culture, socioeconomic status, gender, sexual orientation, physical ability, and so on, with open arms. We call ourselves an "inclusive" congregation, which means we welcome our "neighbors" into our fold and give them the support and acceptance they deserve. We also get involved with the community outside our doors with outreach programs of many kinds, and by acts of kindness on the part of individuals.

And who are our "neighbors?" Jesus answered this question with the Parable of the Good Samaritan. Samaritans were mixed race (partly Jewish and partly Gentile). They lived in separate communities from pure-blooded Jews because they were shunned and looked down upon. Yet, in Jesus' parable, it was a Samaritan who responded when a Jew was in need. It was the Samaritan who was the neighbor.

"Neighbors" includes members of our church and everyone outside of our church, as well as future generations. Caring for God's earth is an expression of love for our collective children and children's children. What we pass on to them matters, too, so we are as "green" as we are able.

We see these actions as critical because of our role model, Jesus of Nazareth, who taught and demonstrated to us the way of loving and caring. He also showed us how to allow ourselves to be surrounded and uplifted in fellowship and in the everlasting arms of our loving God.

A few months ago, I had the privilege of being a flight escort for a group of Ukrainian orphans. One of the Ukrainian escorts said to me, "Why are you (the organization I was working for) doing this? I know two things about you. You are all Christians and you all care deeply about our orphans. You must have an amazing God!"

May God always shine through our words and activities. May we always immerse ourselves in the love of our amazing God, and so be filled up and overflowing with love for others.

Vestry Meeting Highlights

Submitted by Meg Amouroux, Jr. Warden

The vestry met on Thursday, June 23, joined by guest Sylvia Ma. Jim McConnell led opening prayer. We continue to meet in a "hybrid" format, with some folks gathering in person in the Education Room, and others joining remotely via Zoom.

We began to gather at 6:40pm to share God moments, and Rev. Lori opened the meeting at 7pm.

May vestry meeting minutes and the staff and ministry reports were reviewed and approved. Financial reports for April and May were also reviewed and approved.

Sylvia Ma attended as a guest, to give the vestry an update of the McCutcheon concert, held June 13. She thanked the multitude of helpers it took to host the show and gave an overview of ticket sales statistics. After expenses and sales of show tickets, raffle tickets, and snack bar sales were tallied, we netted nearly $800, and the vestry was asked to vote to donate $1000 to Abode Services (the difference coming from funds already in our fundraising special interest account). Motion approved.

The request in May from a local scout troop to use the parish hall for meetings has been set aside. The family of the scout making the request is moving out of state. We will revisit the request should the troop be interested in the future.

Maisha Bora update: We await word from Anne Mwaura, our contact in Kenya, as to the financing details for Hope and Miriam and their university expenses. Should they both proceed to university as planned, we do have enough for their first year. Lori and Meg will review ideas for fundraising and donors. Recipients have been selected for two scholarships, from the Sarah F. Morgan Scholarship fund. Vestry approved the distribution.

The Social Justice Task Force (SJTF) requested donations to two groups, Ukrainian orphans and families. Funding is from the special interest account for social justice / reparations. Motion approved. SJTF also is looking to add bulletin boards across the west wall inside the parish hall. Mary Frances Leopold to research needs and costs for materials and installation and will report back.

The offer for the Little Free Library from Scout Troop 125 fell through, as the materials were spoken for by the time we were able to reach them with our interest. We remain on the troop's radar for future Libraries, should they become available. In the meantime, Sally Morgan will research ways we might install one on our own.

The meeting adjourned, and Jim closed the meeting with Compline. The next Vestry meeting will be held on July 21, again held in hybrid format, with members attending both in-person and remotely, via Zoom.

We Thank Reverend Bill

The parish thanks Rev. Bill for his good care of us while Rev. Lori was on sabbatical!
