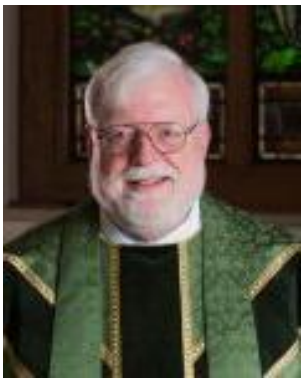
December 2022

Choose the Path of Advent



One of the saddest things I used to hear was the complaint about how stressful the Christmas season is— "I'll be glad when Christmas is over!" So often, what is proclaimed as "The most wonderful time of the year!" -- actually creates its own unrealistic expectations; instead of being joyful, we can be left exhausted and depressed.

Let me suggest that we can have a different experience this December. Ignore the false advertising of what the marketplace calls the "Christmas season." Remember instead that most of this month is for us the season of Advent. In Advent, we recall the longing and expectation that God will act to draw us closer and to provide hope through the promise of a long-awaited Redeemer—literally, One who will buy our freedom from whatever enslaves us and set us free to live a new life in God.

Advent is a time where we can breathe in the Spirit and take stock of our lives. Too often, the hectic journey of our life resembles a California interstate: we speed past so much because driving the speed limit feels unsafe, only to slam on the brakes because some tie-up obstructs us and we are trapped, watching the clock to see whether we can arrive on time. Advent offers a rest stop where we can leave the driver's seat, stretch our intellectual and spiritual legs, reacquire our bearings, and re-center ourselves. After all, there is more to life's journey than joining the rat race. Only when we "pull over" and get away from the traffic in our lives can we remember that we are beloved in God's heart.

As we prepare our homes for the Celebration of Christ's birth, be sure to remember that we humans are the real recipients of the greatest gift of all: the coming of Jesus Christ among us, as one of us, showing us God's love in the flesh. To take that in requires time and deliberate, mindful focus--which only happens when we put our other tasks aside and make a space where we can see, not just the Big Picture, but also our place within it. To remember again who we are in relation to God should be our priority at this time. Advent can be that time when we take time to breathe in the breath of the Spirit and to ready our hearts and minds once again to celebrate the Great Gift.

Our spiritual journey is marked by making choices—encountering the various forks in the road we travel, if you will. We make those choices all the time, though often without recognizing that we are actually making a choice. As we finish our Thanksgiving celebration, do we rush off to Black Friday (even if online), or do we take a little more time to relish and appreciate those we love who make us thankful? And what about the One to Whom we are ultimately thankful for all the blessings we enjoy?

Moving past the big holiday weekend, we come to another fork in the road. Do we plunge into the so-called "Christmas season," which promises much but delivers so little? Or perhaps we will decide this year to enjoy a different December, switching to a lower gear but with more of an inner focus, intent on reflection rather than activity, choosing to listen to what God may be saying to us rather than trying to be heard among the throng outside?

If we choose the path of Advent, may we receive the comfort of the Spirit, and may we experience an entirely new sense of inner peace when Christmas actually arrives!

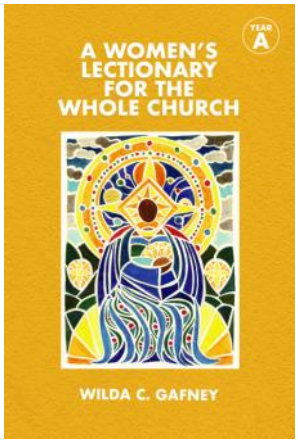
Have a blessed Advent and a Merry Christmas,

~Bill+

Advent & Christmas

Upcoming Events & Opportunities

Hearing Scripture Anew for Advent



Please join us for a four-week exploration of Advent using the readings from A Women's Lectionary For The Whole Church which we will use on Sundays this season. Starting on Tuesday, November 29th at 7:00 PM and continuing weekly through December 20th, we will meet on Zoom to explore the themes and message of God's promises and the people -- especially women -- who helped in their fulfillment to discern how our stories intersect with theirs as those promises continue to find fulfilment in our lives. Rev Bill will provide each week's materials in advance that we may together "hear, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest" these stories from a new perspective. For more information, please contact Bill at bhale@saintj.com. Zoom link HERE.

Advent Family Evening - Sunday, December 4th, 5-7 PM

Everyone is welcome to join this evening where we celebrate the waiting and anticipation of Advent. The evening includes a short service, an early playing of Christmas music and an opportunity for each household to make the angels, shepherds, and sheep for their own nativity scene. We will also share dinner together.

You can sign up (to help with planning) on the sheet in the parish hall or ONLINE. If you might be able to help Jan with the dinner portion of the evening (setting up, cooking, and clearing away) please email her at jan@saintj.com.

2022 HOLIDAY POINSETTIAS

The Holiday season is upon us and soon St. James' Church will be decorated with holiday greenery and lovely Poinsettias. You can help provide a Poinsettia plant or plants, in Memory of, or in Thanksgiving for, a loved one.

A sign up sheet for the Poinsettias will be posted again at the entrance of both churches and inside the Parish Hall. The names of the donors and the reason for the donations will be placed in the Christmas bulletin. The cut off date for names to be added to the Christmas bulletin is Wednesday, December 14, 2022.

The suggested donation for each plant is $10.00. There will be envelopes located by the sign up sheets that can be used for your donation or you may use your pledge envelopes. These envelopes can be dropped into the Collection Plates or inside the office. Please write on the front of your envelope and on the check memo line "Poinsettia Fund."

We look forward to celebrating Christmas this year at St. James'. If you have any questions, please contact Katie Cunningham or Ruth Poole.

The Newsletter Needs YOU!

Do you enjoy reading about news of what is happening at church? Words of wisdom from Lori, Bill, vestry members and others? Do you like seeing when friends' birthdays are? And seeing pictures of events at St. James' such as VBS, Easter and Christmas services?

All these appear in the monthly newsletter, and the church needs help to keep it going. Janet Fischer has been our editor for many years, assembling the monthly issues for us to read. She moved to Vancouver, WA, in March, and needs to retire from doing this work to fully become a member of her new church. Janet will provide a template to use and some basic instructions. (The newsletter is currently created using Publisher, but can easily be transitioned to a Word format.)

Are you able to give a few hours a month to assemble the newsletter? Do you know someone who can? It means putting together what other people write into a file that can be attached to the website. I t does not mean writing the articles! One or two people need to offer their talents and time, or the newsletter will go away. These stories and pictures will not be available to the congregation. If you want to see our newsletter, in publication for many, many years, continue, please talk with Laura Winter or Rev. Lori about this important ministry.

Would you like to use your time and talent to help with the McCutcheon Concert?

Our next in-person John McCutcheon Concert is on Monday, January 16, 2023. (See page 6.) The McCutcheon Team needs your help to sell tickets in the Parish Hall on Sundays after the 8am service and after the 10:30am service starting December 4. If you can help, please contact Meg Amouroux or Sylvia Ma.

- We also need prize donations for the prize drawing on the day of the concert. Please contact Elaine Miller if you have something to donate.
- If you could help cook for the Crew Dinner, please contact Linda or Dave Nelsen.
- If you could bake chocolate chip or oatmeal raisin cookies, please contact Sylvia Ma.

Thank you. We appreciate your support!

Martin Luther King, Jr. Monday and John McCutcheon

After all these years St. James' parishioners have come to expect John McCutcheon to appear in concert on that day, right? Well, he did not appear on that Monday in 2021 and 2022 due to the evil Covid. But, Heeeee's Baaaack! And we are so happy to have him play and sing at St. James'. We miss his musicianship, his singing, and his enthusiasm. For those of you who do not know John, or those of you who may have forgotten, let me explain.

Besides being the only folk singer/songwriter to have a website entitled www.folkmusic.com, he really embodies the genre of folk music. His songs reflect real life, his tunes are his own, and his playing is, well…masterful. Although he does perform songs penned by others, the best and most fun songs are his own. During the pandemic he wrote and wrote, producing two CDs, "Cabin Fever" and "Bucket List." And just arriving - "Leap," a brand-new CD, his 43rd.

At the concert's intermission John leaves a basket on stage for the audience to request favorite songs. Many requested fan favorites happen to be sing-alongs because the audience knows them almost as well as John does. Be prepared for lots of new, original songs as well as old favorites. Those favorites he plays on a myriad of instruments, usually six or so that he brings with him: guitar, 12-string guitar, banjo, fiddle, hammer dulcimer, autoharp, and he plays St. James' piano as well.

His song introductions make them even more interesting. He loves baseball; "Sermon on the Mound" is a whole album of baseball songs and he tells baseball stories. John has recorded the story of an electrician meeting Paul Robeson at the Sydney, Opera House. What about the story of Vedran Smailovic, the cellist of Sarajevo? Both stories make one emotional. He tells about the computer with the built-in printer to preface another song. And then there is the story of when he was robbed followed by the song "Forgive Us." Songs and stories by the world-renowned, Grammy-nominated John McCutcheon!

For a music and fun-filled time just come over to St. James' in Fremont, John's only South Bay Concert, for a genuinely great evening. For lots more on John McCutcheon go to www.folkmusic.com

Get your tickets now and get in the door early to get a good seat. Just so you know, masks are required. Tickets will be available in the Parish Hall after Services starting December 4.

A portion of the proceeds will go to Abode Services, working to end homelessness in the Bay Area.

Three Gratitudes

—Carrie Newcomer

Every night before I go to sleep
I say out loud

Three things that I'm grateful for,

All the significant, insignificant
Extraordinary, ordinary stuff of my life.

It's a small practice and humble,

And yet, I find I sleep better
Holding what lightens and softens my life
Ever so briefly at the end of the day.
Sunlight, and blueberries,
Good dogs and wool socks,
A fine rain,
A good friend,
Fresh basil and wild phlox,

My father's good health,

My daughter's new job,

The song that always makes me cry,
Always at the same part,
No matter how many times I hear it.
Decent coffee at the airport,
And your quiet breathing,
The stories you told me,
The frost patterns on the windows,
English horns and banjos,
Wood Thrush and June bugs,
The smooth glassy calm of the morning pond,
An old coat,
A new poem,
My library card,
And that my car keeps running
Despite all the miles.
And after three things,
More often than not,
I get on a roll and I just keep on going,
I keep naming and listing,

Until I lie grinning,
Blankets pulled up to my chin,
Awash with wonder
At the sweetness of it all.

"Three Gratitudes" is excerpted from Carrie Newcomer's book, A Permeable Life: Poetry and Essays and reprinted in The Window with permission. Submitted by Brian Cochran.

What is Coming this Advent?

Reflection by Brian Cochran

The word Advent means something like "what is to come" in Latin. So what are we looking forward to in Advent? Of course we look forward to remembering the birth of Jesus, but how?

As Godly Play says, "The church learned a long time ago that it needed four full weeks to get ready for a mystery as great as Christmas." Otherwise in all the rush we will miss the mystery.

So what will you do this Advent? Do you have rituals or traditions to help you slow down and prepare?

Two good ones that the church uses are the Advent wreath and the Nativity set. Two other good ones are Matthew 1-2 and Luke 1-2.

The Advent wreath shows us that this is the season when Light came into the world.

The Nativity set shows us that we are all on a journey to Bethlehem, humans and animals alike.

Matthew shows us Joseph's struggle and Luke shows us Mary's.

I encourage you to slow down this Advent, to join the prophets, the Holy Family, the shepherds and their sheep, the magi, and all the rest to enter this journey to Bethlehem, which in Hebrew means "house of bread."

THE DIOCESE OF CALIFORNIA

THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE BAY AREA

Our bishop, Marc Andrus, announced his plan to retire as bishop of the Diocese of California. The process to find his replacement takes a couple years, just like a church's efforts to hire a new rector. The Diocese will establish a Search Committee, they will create a profile, accept applications, interview potential candidates, and plan to call a new bishop early in 2023, with a start date of May 2024. Your prayers for all involved in this transitional time is requested and appreciated.

A Prayer for Transition

Almighty God, giver of every good gift, by your grace you have called us into one fellowship of faith: Look graciously on the people of the Diocese of California during this time of transition. May we be guided in heart and mind by your Holy Spirit to seek and welcome a faithful pastor who will care for your people and equip us to perform the work of the Church. Grant us, in all our doubts and uncertainties, the grace to ask what you would have us do. Save us from all false choices, that in your light we may see light, and on your path may not stumble; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Halloween @ St. James'

Vestry Voices: Expressions of Love @ St. James'

This month's reflections are from Vivienne Paratore

While we know that Gods' love surrounds us all the time, there are places and situations where His love overwhelms us and gratitude floods our hearts.

Those situations are often outside for me; a sunset over the bay, dawn over the Grand Canyon, rays of light coming through the clouds, a waterfall, walking beneath huge redwood trees or the night sky. Other times are often at Saint James': memorial services for our beloved parishioners, baptisms, 8:00 a.m. service in an old and sacred place where so many have worshipped before us, the families at the 10:30 service, sermons that speak directly to me, the greeting at the peace, the greeting of visitors, Sunday school participation, and so many other times. I feel the deepest sense of gratitude for the presence of my Christian family; there are so many folks whom I revere, admire and trust because I see and feel God's love pouring out of them.

My family first came to Saint James' on an Easter morning after a year of church shopping. After leaving Saint Anne's because of a lack of empathy shown to our deaf son in Sunday school, we looked for a signing church and attended several but did not feel comfortable with the liturgy. One Easter, my friend Vickie Baker persuaded us to try out Saint James and when we entered the church, we felt at home. We saw many familiar faces and felt a warm atmosphere, our search was over and we have never looked back.

I want to take this opportunity to thank all of the role models, friends old and new and the staff at Saint James' for being the manifest expression of God's love in the world and for showing me the way to have a deeper relationship with Jesus by allowing the holy spirit to be active in my life.

December can be a very stressful month for many people, or a sad time when the loss of loved ones is felt more poignantly. However, it is also a time when we see revisit God's love entering the world through the birth of Jesus. If you are having a hard time with the Advent season, please reach out to me or someone else at Saint James' so that we can help you through this time.

The expression of God's love at Saint James' takes a tangible form and we are happy to be of service.

It will only take a few minutes.
We are asking for 100% participation.

Vestry Meeting Highlights

Submitted by Meg Amouroux, Jr. Warden

Your vestry met on Thursday, November 17. Sally Morgan led opening prayer. We continue to meet in a "hybrid" format, with most folks gathering in person in the Education Room, and others joining remotely via Zoom.

We began to gather at 6:30pm to share God moments, and Rev. Lori opened the meeting at 7pm.

October vestry meeting minutes, and the staff and ministry reports, were reviewed and approved. Financial reports for October were also reviewed and approved. An email vote from late October, which approved funds from the Building Fund to cover costs for emergency plumbing needs, was recorded into the minutes.

Vestry Updates:

- The carolers we had hoped to hire for our Christmas Eve service were sadly booked already, so we will be hiring a different set of vocalists.
- McCutcheon Concert & Raffle ticket sales will begin on Sunday mornings on Dec. 4th and will continue each Sunday (except for Christmas Day) through January 15th. The show is scheduled for Monday evening, January 16. Tickets have already been sold through our online vendor, Eventbrite!
- Every household is encouraged to complete the brief (and easy) survey for the Vital + Thriving congregational development program. Links to the survey can be found in the recent Thursday and Saturday emails, and hard copies are available for those requiring a paper copy to complete. (See Rev. Lori for a printed version, if needed).

Vestry Discussions:

- While the Social Justice Task Force is continuing with the development of a message board to be displayed outdoors, we continued discussion as to its appearance, how to inform and educate the parish on the various icons' meanings contained on the boards, and possible timelines for its display.
- We began brainstorming potential new vestry members and got a first look at the 2023 draft budget.
- With the process in motion to select a new bishop for the diocese, the vestry was asked to review some questions which will help build the Diocesan Profile. The vestry's comments and replies will be collected and forwarded to the Search Committee.

The meeting adjourned, and Sally closed the meeting with Compline. The next Vestry meeting will be held on December 15. We will continue our hybrid meeting format, with members attending both in-person and remotely, via Zoom.
